2. [redacted] showed me as much of the report as is already prepared. It says that during the first half of April C. D. Jackson notified the PSB that he had been asked for help by Ambassador Lodge, and he, in turn, asked the PSB staff to provide central staff service and, particularly, to provide materials on Soviet atrocities and violations of human rights. [redacted] were given the responsibility of handling the matter within PSB. They have met with Assistant Secretary Hickerson of UNA (State Department), Howard Penniman, OIR/PRIS, and Ambassador Lodge. As presently constituted, contact points of the various interested departments are Herbert A. Pierst, UNA; [redacted]k, PSB; Louis Olom, OIR; and John C. Ross, US/UN.
